

3 October 2018

BrightHouse announces that Graeme Campbell is to replace Alex Maby as Chief Financial Officer

BrightHouse announces that after five years as Chief Financial Officer, Alex Maby has decided to leave the Company and that Graeme Campbell will assume the role with immediate effect.

Graeme, a qualified accountant, has most recently been the Company's Strategy & Digital Director and has previously held the position of Director of Finance at BrightHouse.

Commenting on the announcement, Hamish Paton, the Chief Executive said: "Alex has made a significant contribution to our business over many years. In addition to leading the Finance team, he played a pivotal role in the successful refinancing of the corporate bond in February this year and most recently negotiated a £35m credit facility for the Company. Myself, and indeed the entire Board, would like to thank Alex for his contribution to BrightHouse and wish him all the best for the future."

Commenting on the appointment of Graeme Campbell, Hamish added: "We're fortunate to already have Graeme in the Company with the business knowledge, experience and qualifications required for the role. I look forward to working closely with him as we return the business to growth."

ENDS

For further information, please contact:

BrightHouse Group Ltd at investor.relations@brighthouse.co.uk

For media enquiries please contact CNC:

Simon Evans / Liam Clark on +44 20 3219 8800 or brighthouse@cnc-communications.com

About BrightHouse:

BrightHouse is the UK's leading rent-to-own retail chain, providing quality branded domestic appliances, technology products and household furniture to customers on affordable weekly payments. A major employer in local communities, BrightHouse has some 280 stores nationwide and 2,600 colleagues.

More information about the business can be found on the BrightHouse Group website:

www.brighthousegroup.co.uk